

but to solidify
their own position
to confirm them
to reassure them

we are the answers
to questions
no one wanted to ask
so how can it be expected to be working

the streets are swept
but dirty

the children are taught but not learning

and though there is food so many are starving

i really don't know
how you can be
marv'ling
at this civilisation